

Public Awareness Workshop Frequently Asked Questions

Revised: June 2, 2010

1. What is the cost to attend the workshop?

There is no cost to attend the workshop or view the webcast. Attendees are responsible for their costs associated with travel.

2. Will the public awareness workshop be webcast live?

Yes, the public awareness workshop will be webcasted live. Viewers will be able view and hear the workshop live. Viewers can also email questions during the workshop. If time permits, some questions will be answered during the workshop.

3. Will the webcast be tested ahead of time to minimize connectivity issues?

Yes, webcast functionality will be tested prior to the workshop. However, it is recommended that viewers check their firewall and connectivity prior to the workshop.

4. Will the webcast access information be posted prior to the date of the workshop?

Yes, the webcast access information will be emailed to the registrants if they provided a valid email address when they registered. In addition, the webcast details will be posted on the public awareness workshop registration site at:

<http://primis.phmsa.dot.gov/meetings/MtgHome.mtg?mtg=65&nocache=9351>