CERTIFIED MAIL - RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

May 19, 2008

Mr. Myron Hoover
General Manager
Jayhawk Pipeline LLC
1391 Iron Horse Road
McPherson, Kansas 67460

CPF 3-2008-5006

Dear Mr. Hoover,

On August 19, 2006, a representative of the Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration (PHMSA) pursuant to Chapter 601 of 49 United States Code investigated a release of crude oil from your El Dorado pipeline system which occurred in McPherson, Kansas on August 18, 2006.

As a result of the investigation, it appears that you have committed probable violations of the Pipeline Safety Regulations, Title 49, Code of Federal Regulations. The items investigated and the probable violation(s) are.
1. §195.402 Procedural manual for operations, maintenance, and emergencies.

(a) General. Each operator shall prepare and follow for each pipeline system a manual of written procedures for conducting normal operations and maintenance activities and handling abnormal operations and emergencies. This manual shall be reviewed at intervals not exceeding 15 months, but at least once each calendar year, and appropriate changes made as necessary to insure that the manual is effective. This manual shall be prepared before initial operations of a pipeline commence, and appropriate parts shall be kept at locations where operations and maintenance activities are conducted.

On the date of the spill, the operator (dispatcher) did not align the proper valves for delivery of product to a specific tank as directed by the Oil Movements Supervisor. The delivery path selected caused product to flow up to a closed refinery valve resulting in pressuring the manifold above its maximum operating pressure since its overpressure protection device was inoperable.

Jayhawk’s dispatcher was instructed to deliver product to refinery tank J-6 to which refinery personnel had opened valves for receipt. The operator instead opened valves on its system to deliver product to tanks J-5/J-7. The refinery had closed their valves to tanks J-5/J-7, and tank J-6 had a separate delivery line. Therefore, alarm conditions and overpressuring of the McPherson manifold occurred resulting in the spill.

2. §195.406 Maximum operating pressure.

(b) No operator may permit the pressure in a pipeline during surges or other variations from normal operations to exceed 110 percent of the operating pressure limit established under paragraph (a) of this section. Each operator must provide adequate controls and protective equipment to control the pressure within this limit.

Jayhawk Pipeline failed to provide overpressure protection equipment to prevent the operating pressure from exceeding 110 percent of the maximum operating pressure as established under paragraph 195.406(a). Prior to 2001 at the McPherson receipt manifold (El Dorado line) the operator had placed a plate in the piping upstream of its relief valve designed to provide overpressure protection. The presence of this plate made the relief valve inoperable against line pressure, throughout the period from 2001 to August 18, 2006.

3. §195.406 Maximum operating pressure.

(b) No operator may permit the pressure in a pipeline during surges or other variations from normal operations to exceed 110 percent of the operating pressure limit established under paragraph (a) of this section. Each operator must provide adequate controls and protective equipment to control the pressure within this limit.

Jayhawk exceeded 110 percent of the established maximum operating pressure of 275 psig at McPherson receipt manifold (El Dorado line) on August 18, 2006. The maximum pressure allowed should have been 302.5 psig (110% x 275) Jayhawk pumped from the El Dorado Station against a closed system causing the pressure to exceed the 300 psig range transducer at McPherson (elevation 1492 feet). The system pressurized from the El Dorado Station to the Valley Center Station then on to McPherson. Pressure recordings at the El Dorado (elevation 1362 feet) and Valley Center (elevation 1338 feet) stations were 680 and 665 psig, respectively. The Valley Center Station was not pumping at the time of failure. The calculated static head pressure at McPherson indicates the pressure was approximately 609 psig. Therefore, Jayhawk exceeded the maximum operating pressure by over 100 percent.

4. §195.428 Overpressure safety devices and overfill protection systems.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, each operator shall, at intervals not exceeding 15 months, but at least once each calendar year, or in the case of pipelines used to carry highly volatile liquids, at intervals not to exceed 7½ months, but at least twice each calendar year, inspect and test each pressure limiting device, relief valve, pressure regulator, or other item of pressure control equipment to determine that it is functioning properly, is in good mechanical condition, and is adequate from the standpoint of capacity and reliability of operation for the service in which it is used.

For 2001 through August 18, 2006, the operator failed to conduct documented inspection and testing of ten (10) pressure relief valves which is required at least once each calendar year. The valve locations are: 1) McPherson receipt manifold (El Dorado line) - 1 relief valve, 2) McPherson receipt manifold (Chase line) - 2 relief valves, 3) Valley Center 4 Station Receipt - 1 relief valve, 4) Chase receipt manifold (Laton, Schurr and Meade lines) - 3 relief valves, 5) Hooker receipt manifold - 1 relief valve, 6) Meade receipt manifold (Eubanks line) - 1 relief valve and 7) Meade receipt manifold (Liberal line) - 1 relief valve.
Proposed Civil Penalty

Under 49 United States Code, § 60122, you are subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $100,000 for each violation for each day the violation persists up to a maximum of $1,000,000 for any related series of violations. The Compliance Officer has reviewed the circumstances and supporting documentation involved in the above probable violation(s) and has recommended that you be preliminarily assessed a civil penalty of $365,000 as follows:
