

Peer Reviews

Tom Kevorkian
Pipeline Research Council International

March 22, 2005
Pipeline R & D Forum

Consensus Technology

- "Of, by and for" the energy pipeline industry
- 35 Member Board engagement
- 6 Technical Committees – subject expertise
- Ad Hoc Teams – working with global technology and research firms

Peer Consultations

- 2005 Core PRCI Funded Work - $14.6M

Joint Program with GTI

BAA Program with OPS

Consortium with DOE

Benefits

- Leveraging company invested funds - 7:1
- Initiating and developing technology
- Expanding knowledge base of industry, companies, employees, public stakeholders

Future Operating Model

- Member companies allocate their dollars and technical staff toward specific projects
- Planning is collaborative and outcome intensive
- Companies that fund projects manage their progress
- Accelerates technology transfer